5.5 DATA PROCESSING RELATED TO ENTERING THE WEBSITE AND COOKIES

Cookies store unique computer and device IDs and profile information. Cookies are not suitable for the identification of website visitors, but they are suitable for identifying and recognizing the computer or device used by the visitor to visit the website.

The website places a cookie on the visitors' computer for personalized service and reads it back on a later visit. If the browser returns a previously saved cookie, the cookie provider has the option to combine the visitor's browsing with the current and previous website, but only for their own content.

The website sends a request for permission to place cookies in the form of a pop-up window, which the user can allow by clicking on the "accept all cookies" button.

The cookies used in the website can be divided into the following categories: System, Analytics, Advertising, Custom

The table below shows exactly what cookies the Company uses on the website and what are their main features:

Cookie	Name	Purpose	Duration
System	necessary for the operation of Flightrefund software	Due to the operation of the system, it is essential to use some cookies. Examples are cookies used to log in or to monitor the upload process.	max 365 days
Analytics	- Google Analytics - Tag Manager cookie - Hotjar - Mixpanel	The purpose of placing these types of cookies is to collect anonymous statistics about users and usage of the site.	max 2 years
Advertising	cookies of various advertising platforms of Flightrefund	Flightrefund uses various advertising platforms that can place cookies on the website. (Facebook, Google Ads, etc.) In addition, the site also uses these cookies for remarketing purposes.	max 365 days
Custom		We may also set other cookies to enhance the user experience.	max 365 days

The Company draws the users' attention to the fact that the website may also contain links to pages that are not operated by the Company, but only for the information of visitors. The Company has no influence on the content and security of the websites operated by the partners. The Company hereby requests that the persons concerned review the privacy statement of the sites they visit in advance before providing any personal data in any form on a given non-Company site.

6. ACCESS TO PERSONAL DATA AND DATA PROCESSORS

6.1. Scope of persons entitled to access personal data

The personal data you provide may be accessed by Company employees, such as flight validation staff, in order to perform their duties.

In addition, your data may be accessed by third parties acting on behalf of the Company, in particular a law firm with a contractual relationship with the Company, who will represent our Company in the event of legal enforcement of the claim.

6.2. Data transfer

For the purpose of enforcing your claim against the airline, your personal data, your name, mother's maiden name, address, place and date of birth, ID number and type, booking number and E-ticket, and flight number and the departure and arrival times of the flight are forwarded to the airline or, in the case of legal proceedings, to the court or authorities.

Your bank account number will be forwarded to the airline or the court if the payment is made directly by them.

We will forward the insurance contract number with Európai Utazási Biztosító Zrt., date of damage, your name and the name of your mother to Európai Utazási Biztosító Zrt. to verify the existence of the insurance. The Európai Utazási Biztosító Zrt. already has your contract number, name and mother's name - as you have already contracted the insurance with this insurer, the purpose of the transfer is to check the existence of the insurance.

We would like to inform you that your personal data may be transferred to a third country if this is necessary – due to the airline's registered office - for the legal enforcement of the claim.

The Member States of the European Union and also Norway, Liechtenstein and Iceland, which are parties to the Agreement on the European Economic Area, grant data subjects the same rights under the GDPR as regards the protection of personal data and the exercise of the rights and freedoms of data subjects.

Pursuant to Article 45 of the GDPR, the European Commission identified the countries outside the European Union and the EEA Member States that have a decision on adequacy under Article 43 (3) of the GDPR and adequate guarantees for the processing of personal data under Article 46, and as regards the exercise of data subjects' rights, ie they regulate the protection of data subjects' personal data in the same way as the GDPR and provide adequate guarantees to enforce and protect data subjects' rights.

In accordance with Article 45 of the GDPR, the Commission of the European Union has published a list of the following countries that have compliance with Article 43 (3) and comply with Article 46 of the GDPR: Switzerland, Andorra, Argentina, Canada, Fårö, Guernsey, Israel, Isle of Man, Jersey, New Zealand, Uruguay and United States. The official list is available here: https://ec.europa.eu/info/law/law-topic/dataprotection/data-transfers-outside-eu/adequacy-protection-personal-data-non-eucountries_en

If the airline has its registered office or the court or other authority responsible for enforcing your claim is located in a country that is not on the list published by the European Commission, your personal data will be transferred with your explicit consent.

Please note that in the event of a transfer to such a country, your data protection rights under the GDPR may not apply, and the resulting risk is brought to your attention.

The Company only transfers your personal data to state bodies and authorities, in particular courts, prosecutor's offices, investigative and violation authorities, and the NAIH, in exceptional cases and on the basis of legal obligations. For example, if the NAIH contacts our Company and asks for information about the processing of your personal data.

Hereby, we declare that the Company uses only data processors that provide adequate guarantees under the GDPR and Info tv. and to implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your rights.

A written agreement between our Company and the data processors sets out the rights and obligations related to data processing arising in connection with data processing, as defined in the GDPR.

7. PRIVACY BY DESIGN

We inform you that our Company shall take all necessary measures to protect your personal data, in particular against unauthorized access, alteration, transmission, disclosure, deletion or destruction, as well as accidental destruction and damage, and becoming inaccessible due to changes in the technology used.

In the event of a privacy incident, we will report the privacy incident to NAIH without undue delay, no later than 72 hours after we become aware of the privacy incident, unless the privacy incident is not likely to jeopardize your rights and freedoms through the personal data we process.

We will notify you of a privacy incident without delay if it poses a high risk to your rights and freedoms. We classify the risk as high, for example, if we detect unauthorized intrusion into our IT network, or if the data processor detects and signals unauthorized intrusion to us and in particular detects unauthorized theft of personal data.

It is considered a data protection incident if the data stored by our Company is damaged, accidentally or despite a retention obligation, unlawfully destroyed, lost, unauthorizedly communicated to others, or accessed by anyone without authorization.

8. YOUR RIGHTS IN RELATION TO OUR DATA PROCESSING

8.1. Right to access and right to be informed

You may request written information from the Company through the contact details provided in Section 1 to be informed by the Company of:

- what personal data,
- on what legal basis and for what purpose the data management is carried out by the Company,
- if the data was not collected from you by our Company, from what source,
- how long the Company processes personal data or, if this is not possible, the criteria used by our Company to determine this period,
- to which supervisory authority you can lodge a complaint in case of a possible data breach,
- the right to request the Company to rectify, delete, restrict the processing of personal data concerning you and to object to the processing of such personal data,
- the circumstances, effects and measures taken to remedy the data protection incident,
- the name, address and data processing activities of the data processor,

- the recipients or categories of recipients to whom or with whom your personal data has been disclosed by the Company, and when, under what law, who provided access to your personal data or to whom you transferred your personal data.

The Company will fulfill your request within a maximum of 1 month, by letter or e-mail to the contact details provided by you, free of charge.

If your request is clearly unfounded or excessive, our Company is entitled to:

- refuse to act on your request, or
- charge a fee to ensure the recovery of postage and administrative costs incurred.

We consider your request to be excessive if it is of a recurring nature and we have already been informed about the above data and facts at least twice within a year, and the scope of our Company's activities and data management has not changed, so there has been no change in the lawfulness, reason and manner of data processing be.

We would like to inform you that in the event of a telephone inquiry on your part, which concerns the right to information, we can only provide general information. Our company can only accept a request for information in writing (by email), otherwise we cannot determine for sure whether the request actually came from you.

8.2. Right to rectification

You may, in writing, request that the Company change any of your personal data (for example, if you change your e-mail address or address) through the contact details provided in Section 1. The Company will fulfill your request within a maximum of 1 month and will notify you by letter or e-mail to the contact details you have provided.

In addition, through the contact details provided in Section 1, you may request in writing that the Company correct your inaccurate personal data about you. The Company will comply with your request without undue delay and will notify you by letter or e-mail to the contact details you have provided.

If you find that it is justified to supplement the incomplete personal data in order to achieve the data management objectives of our Company and thus to enforce your legitimate interest, you may request that our Company supplement the missing data with its records. To this end, we kindly ask you to send us your statement to the contact details provided in point 1, supplemented by your missing data, consenting to the processing of your data. Based on the supplementary statement, our Company will supplement your personal data with the data corresponding to the request without delay.

We will inform the person to whom we have communicated the personal data affected by the correction of the correction and the corrected data. If requested, we will provide the names and contact details of the persons to whom we have previously been informed as recipients of the data to be corrected to whom the data have been forwarded.

8.3. Right to erasure

You may, in writing, request the Company to delete your personal data through the contact details provided in Section 1.

The Company will reject the request for cancellation if the data is necessary for the submission and enforcement of your claim for compensation as a legal claim. However, if there is no such obligation, the Company will comply with your request within a maximum of 1 month and will notify you by letter or e-mail to the contact details you have provided.

With regard to data processing on the Internet, we inform you that our Company will make every effort to delete your data stored in search engines, if you have indicated it for us, at all possible access or storage points of the data.

Also, we will notify the person to whom we have communicated the deleted personal data of the deletion. If requested, we will provide the names and contact details of the persons to whom we have previously been informed as recipients of the data to be deleted, to whom the data have been transmitted.

8.4. Right to restriction of processing

You may, in writing, request from the Company, through the contact details provided in Section 1, a restriction on the processing of your personal data.

This means that during the restriction period, we may only store your personal data, but we may not pass it on to any recipient, allow access to it, interrogate it, make it accessible, or delete or destroy it.

An exception to the restriction is if the processing of the personal data subject to the restriction is necessary for the enforcement of legal claims or in the overriding public interest. If the restriction is lifted for such a reason, we will inform you in advance in writing.

We inform the person with whom the personal data subject to the restriction has been communicated about the restriction of data processing. If requested, we will provide the names and contact details of the persons to whom we have previously been informed as recipients of the restricted data to whom the data have been transmitted.

8.5. Right to data portability

You have the right to receive your personal data provided to us in a format that allows you to transmit it in an e-readable form.

Please note that according to the GDPR and also to the 2017 report of the Data Protection Commissioner, data controllers are not obliged to develop formats that allow data portability and to introduce or maintain technically compatible data management systems. The data subject is entitled to have the data transferred directly between the data controllers if this is technically feasible!

8.6. Right to object

We inform you that your personal data will not be used by our Company for the purpose of business acquisition, public opinion surveys or scientific research and will not be transmitted for such purposes.

Nevertheless, we inform you that you may object in writing to the data processing through the contact details provided in point 1, if you believe that our Company would transfer or use your personal data for these purposes.

8.7. Enhanced level protection of children rights

Due to the nature of the activity, our company also handles children's personal data.

Please note that a child under the age of 16 is considered a child under the GDPR.

Our company considers a child under the age of 18 to be a minor under the law on the enforcement of claims. Accordingly, if the personal data of a customer under the age of 18, ie a child, is included in the data managed by the Company, the Company requests the explicit consent of the parent exercising parental supervision over the child for the processing of the child's personal data.

9. THE POSSIBILITY OF LEGAL ENFORCEMENT IN RELATION TO DATA PROCESSING

Before initiating any procedure, please contact our Company through the contact details provided in Section 1 and send us your complaint. Our Company cooperates with you as a complainant, and if we find it justified based on the complaint, we will restore the lawful status immediately!

You also have the right to initiate NAIH proceedings and file a complaint if you believe that our Company violates GDPR requirements in the processing of your personal data.
